

Safe Harbor Statement

This Report may contain “forward-looking statements”, as defined under the Federal Securities Laws, including the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Certain portions of this Report which do not relate to historical financial information may be deemed to constitute forward-looking statements. Generally, you can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as “expect”, “estimate”, “project”, “budget”, “forecast”, “anticipate”, “goal”, “intend”, “plan”, “may”, “will”, “could”, “should”, “believes”, “predicts”, “potential”, “continue” and similar expressions or the negative or other variations thereof. Such forward-looking statements are based on current expectations that involve a number of uncertainties and risks that may cause actual events or results to differ materially from the Company’s expectations or from results which might be projected, forecasted, estimated or budgeted by the Company in forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially include, but are not limited to, general conditions in the electronics and aerospace industries, the Company’s competitive position, the status of the Company’s relationships with its customers, economic conditions in international markets, the cost and availability of raw materials, transportation and utilities, and the various other factors set forth in Item 1A “Risk Factors” and under the caption “Factors That May Affect Future Results” after Item 7 of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 1, 2009. These and other risks may be detailed from time to time in the Company’s periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, its fiscal year 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K and other SEC filings, copies of which may be obtained from www.sec.gov. The Company is under no obligation to (and expressly disclaims any such obligation to) update any of the information contained herein if any forward-looking statement later turns out to be inaccurate whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
